

CHAPTER 211.

(1825) A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to prevent the unnecessary accumulation of Costs in Civil Suits, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five,* chapter one hundred and sixty-seven.

Explanatory.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, and it is hereby declared, That the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, was intended to embrace, and does apply to all bonds of every nature and kind whatsoever, whether the same be with collateral condition or otherwise; and the said section of said act shall be so taken and construed in the courts of this state, in all cases pending or to arise therein; as well in cases at the suit of the state, for its own use, as those in which the state is the nominal plaintiff, and in all other cases whatsoever.

CHAPTER 217.

* 1835, ch. 201. A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act to establish Magistrates' Courts in the several Counties of this State, and to prescribe their Jurisdiction.

In cases of appeal.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, in all cases of appeal from justices of the peace or magistrates' courts, to the county courts of this state, wherein either party shall be entitled to and demand a trial by jury, it shall be the duty of said county courts, upon the calling of said case, and the parties being ready for trial, forthwith to order a jury to be impanelled, and to hear and determine said cases upon the verdict or finding of the jury, as in cases originating in said courts, without any delay or postponement, further than necessary to the advancement of justice.

Trial by jury.

Without delay.

Continuance.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to prevent the continuance of any case upon appeal as aforesaid, for want of evidence, according to the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided.

CHAPTER 246.

* 1715, ch. 40. A further SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act directing the manner of Suing out Attachments in this Province, and limiting the extent of them.

Attachment may issue to any county.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any plaintiff in any writ of attachment which has been or may be hereafter issued out of any county court or court of appeals, on which the sheriff hath or shall hereafter make return of nulla bona, to issue a writ of attachment to any sheriff of any other county in which it may be supposed that the defendant has any goods, chattels, lands, tenements or credits, liable under the existing laws of the state to be attached, returnable to the court of the county to which such writ is issued.

Returnable, &c.
